

The S.W.A.T. Team Wants You

(Scouts Want Adults Trained!)

For a Training Blitz!!

Plan to attend the 2010 University of Scouting “Exploring New Frontiers!”

What is a University of Scouting? It is a Scout leaders' learning extravaganza! It is a training event where leaders can increase their knowledge, improve their skills, and gain enthusiastic attitudes about Scouting.

Who goes to the Univ. of Scouting? Any new, prospective, or experienced Cub and Boy Scout leader, committee members, parents, commissioners, district and council leaders can attend.

When is the Univ. of Scouting? Saturday, October 2nd. Registration starts at 8:00 a.m. Opening ceremonies are at 8:45. The day will conclude with closing ceremonies and recognition at 4:15 p.m.

Where is the Univ. of Scouting? This year, it will be held at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 2001 W. Bremer Ave. in Waverly.

Why go to Univ. of Scouting? For information, new ideas, excitement, and new challenges that will help you provide a better program for the boys. It also counts as supplemental training for Leader training awards. (Knots) AND you MIGHT win a door prize!!

Special this year, if your unit brings 5 leaders to the University of Scouting, the 5th leader can attend FREE of charge! What a deal!!

We will be providing the Position Specific training for all leaders
(All Cub and Boy Scout positions) along with BALOO training for Cub Scout leaders

Even if you've already been trained, we have many other classes to further your education in your Scouting career for both Cub and Boy Scout leaders
